

Do you have a spare bedroom in your home?

Could you make a difference to someone in need?

IDAS Safe Havens project offers short term accommodation in a volunteer host's home to support individuals or families who have been subjected to domestic abuse or sexual violence.

IDAS are seeking volunteers, with a spare room in their home to become Safe Haven's hosts. Being a host is incredibly rewarding as you play a key part in supporting someone to rebuild their life.

You will receive full training, as well as ongoing support.

To find out more visit our website www.idas.org.uk or email karen.ward@idas.org.uk.

About IDAS

We are the leading specialist domestic abuse charity in Yorkshire. We also offer expert advice and support to people who have been affected by sexual violence and abuse. Each year we receive more than 22,000 referrals; 25,000 calls to our confidential helpline and provide direct support to more than 10,000 individuals and families in the community. We also provide safe accommodation to over 250 individuals and families each year.